Gloria Nicol : Candles for the Home before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Candles for the Home:

Includes many creative ideas for candle use and presentation, both inside and outside the home.

About the Author Gloria Nicol is a successful designer and stylist. Her formal training in embroidery and textiles was followed by six years designing high-fashion knitwear, sold under her own label to boutiques around the world. After running the Homes department at Good Housekeeping magazine for several years, she left to pursue a freelance career and contributes to many leading publications
