By A Customer I am a school teacher who teaches crafts. This book is excellent. I remember seeing Mark Wood on an episode of the Carol Duval show many years ago and made his Scarecrow Wreath back then. Now, there are wreaths for every holiday! The character wreaths have taken wreath making to new heights.

The home decor market is going strong - with little sign of slowing - and wreaths are an extremely popular way to add panache to one's home. This book goes beyond the "typical flower and fruit" wreaths. Readers will find characters that relate to seasons and holidays, including Uncle Sam, Miss Liberty, Santa, a mummy, and Father Time. Focusing on technique, authors Kasey Rogers and Mark Wood cover the basics of creating a character wreath, from making the face to adding the sleeves to complete the perfect outfit. Each of the projects includes stunning photographs and step-by-step instructions.

About the Author Rogers played "Louise Tate" on the popular TV show Bewitched. She and Wood are also the authors of Halloween Crafts: Eerily Elegant Decor.
