Hand-painted flowers, fruit, and decorative patterns can turn ordinary glass into gorgeous yet practical works of art. Using paints designed specifically for glass, artists Arlene Swiatek Gillen and Maribel Delgado show how to get stunning results decorating a variety of glass surfaces including goblets, pitchers, vases, canisters, bottles, ornaments, and more. Glass is both inexpensive and easy to find, and you can start painting right away since it requires little preparation. No need to worry about making mistakes; they can be removed easily with a moistened swab. Step-by-step instructions and worksheets will guide you every step of the way. 8 Sets (22 items): Blue Beauties vases, Strawberry Fiesta pitcher and glasses, Touch of Spain olive oil bottle and saucers, Grape Harvest cake cover and plate, Fanciful Strokes Christmas tree ornaments, Holiday Garlands canisters, Berries and Blossoms pitcher and glasses, and Hydrangea Blooms ivy bowls on pedestals
