1 of 2 people found the following review helpful. a must have book for the kilim enthusiast.By Harrison A.a fantastic piece of work. very insightful and well researched. insightful with many discussions never approached in other similar books. highly recommended! my favorite textile book.

A kilim is a flat woven carpet made by the nomadic and peasant populations of Anatolian Turkey. Over 50 are shown in full color, and the history, design elements, production, and economics are explored. Also includes technical information for rug collectors. No bibliography. Annotation copyright Bo
