This is another valuable addition to my refurbish and reuse library.

THE ULTIMATE BOOK OF DOING UP OLD JUNK offers a wealth of ideas for sourcing and refurbishing junk in a broad range of styles. From a dull chipboard cabinet in the attic to an old chair at a garage sale, this book offers detailed information and step-by-step techniques for rescuing these bargains and transforming them into beautiful works of art to treasure and use every day. Included are over 50 projects covering a wide variety of styles and decorative finishes. From the rustic feel of Shaker-style painted furniture to the more exotic allure of lacquer from Asia, there's something for everyone.
