The pictures and instructions are well done. I have several books by this author and I think this is my favorite.

Primitive artist Maggie Bonanomi has created an exciting new quilt, which inspired a pile of matching pillows, rug designs, sewing accessories, a crossstitch sampler and more. 19 in all.

I have never come across Maggie's work before, but now I see she has written at least three other books. I'm glad she's in my world now. I imagine her as one of those warm-hearted women we all need in our lives. This book is a treasure. Discovering an old quilt, Maggie let her creative qualities and imagination loose to create not only a new quilt, but also matching pillows. There are also mat and rug designs and beautiful velvet sewing accessories - a sewing case, lovely pea pod pincushion. In addition she has beautified the home with table runners and cross-stitch samplers. The templates are hand-drawn. If you love primitive style, you'll love this book. It's adorable. How could anyone resist a book with a title like this? Lovely fabrics, gorgeous projects, great photos and it's just a book you will want to keep. Karen Platt- yarnsandfabrics.co.uk June 2016 Maggie Bonanomi discovered a great old quilt. She marvelled, played and let her mind wander. This book is the result. She has created an exciting new quilt, a pile of matching pillows and also designed sewing accessories including a sewing case, pincushion, a wall-hung sewing necessity and a necklace. Her Thistle Down Moon mat and rug designs sprung from memories of summer nights riding bikes with her sister. There are 19 projects in all and each is beautifully photographed. Throughout the book you get a real sense of the artist and her passion for textiles. Sewing World
