At the turn of the 20th century, the Louis Comfort Tiffany Studios was commissioned to create stained-glass windows, based on the seven angels in the book of Revelation. This book describes the beauty and symbolism of these windows, including the biblical as well as inner spiritual meaning of the windows and their unique details.

"I am very impressed by the amount of research that [the book] synthesizes and presents in such digestible form. It's a beautiful piece of writing that spans scholarship, meditation, and spiritual guidance."--Lynne Ambrosini, Ph.D., Chief Curator, Taft Museum of Art
