The refined output of vases and bowls by the great architect and designer for the long-standing Venetian glasshouse. An architect, designer, interior decorator, and columnist for Domus magazine, Tomaso Buzzi (1900-1981) was one of the most important trendsetters for Italian taste in the 1930s and 1940s. This volume provides a complete overview of the refined oeuvre of Buzzi, who worked in close partnership with Venini Co. in 1932 and 1933.

About the AuthorMarino Barovier is a Venetian belonging to one of the most ancient families of Murano glassblowers, and regarded as one of the leading experts on the craft.
